

SPRING ON WAY SOMEWHERE, SAYS NATE EDWARDS

ECONOMY, Ind., Feb. 19.—A letter was received from Edward D. Martin who has been living in Cincinnati the past six months, stating that he was married Feb. 13, on his forty-third birthday anniversary, to Mrs. Emma Smith, 37, at the M. E. parsonage by Rev. Heistand. They were to have been married early last fall, but Mr. Martin was working for the government and the marriage was postponed. After their honeymoon in the South they will return to the Queen City and remain there until the first of May, then they will move to Kokomo where they will build a home. Both parties are well known here and their friends here wish them a fine sailing with bundles of prosperity falling at every point in their journey.

The Economy Friends Sunathala club gave a penny supper Saturday night in the church basement. Dr. Stork brought Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lamb an eight-pound German toe. Gus Weyl, farmer, made known how much income tax he was due to pay the government. He has sold horses, cattle and hogs in 1916 and as a side line sold $1,100 worth of cream and $275 worth of chickens and eggs. Aaron Bowman, 75 years old, is ill with pneumonia and leakage of the heart. He is in a serious condition. There is a new jittery plying between Economy and Richmond driven by Carl Lundy. He will make daily trips. The mother of Leland Bryant has just had a letter from him after a wait of three weeks. He is now in France. The Economy Ladies' Aid society will furnish the lunch at the John W. Taylor stock sale Thursday. Dr. Loop was called to Thornton Sunday on the account of the death of his only sister. He will return to Economy Tuesday or Wednesday. The first large drove of robins landed in Perry township Saturday. There was between 50 and 60 in the bunch. Also two blue birds and one song sparrow has been heard. So spring must be on the road some where. The E. H. S. will give a play the 15th of March. The home orchestra will furnish the music.

Household Hints by MRS. MORTON

MENU HINT

Breakfast. Oranges. Rice Muffins. Oleomargarine. Coffee.

Lunch. Baked Sausage with Potatoes. Buttermilk Bread. Crumb Cake. Tea. Dried Lima Beans. Hollandaise. Philadelphia Relish. Fruit Salad. Half Cups Coffee.

BREADS

Graham Bread.—Take one-half cup of warm water. It should then be kept warm until the yeast gets all foamy. Too much heat scalds it and not enough keeps it from rising. Get the right heat by having the tea kettle boiling and then turning the lid upside down and put the cup in the lid. Then keep the water simmering till the yeast has risen. Add three teaspoons of sugar to the yeast.

Put graham flour in a pan and pour in the yeast-water. Then add one and one-half teaspoons lukewarm water and teaspoon salt. Stir until you can poke your finger in the dough and none sticks to it. Let it rise and pan it. Let it rise again and bake slowly for about an hour.

This recipe is good for whole wheat and white bread also. The only difference is to use one-half spoonful of salt for whole wheat and a pinch for white bread. The graham can be made with one-third white, with salt accordingly. Makes one whole loaf and one small loaf.

Favorite Biscuit.—Two quarts flour, two tablespoons lard substitute rubbed fine in flour, two teaspoons cream tartar, one teaspoon soda, two teaspoons salt sifted in flour, one pint water to make soft dough. Roll an inch thick; cut and bake.

THE TABLE

Split Pea Soup.—One cup dried split peas, three cups cold water, one-half teaspoon sugar, one teaspoon salt, speck pepper, one-half tablespoon butter, one-half tablespoon flour. Milk or water to thin it. Soak peas in water half hour. Change the water and let them simmer slowly until they make

Try Making Your Own Cough Remedy

You can save about $2. and have a better remedy than the ready-made kind. Easily done.

If you combined the curative properties of every known "ready-made" cough remedy, you would hardly have in them all the curative power that lies in this simple "home-made" cough syrup which takes only a few minutes to prepare.

Get from any druggist 2½ ounces of Pinex (60 cents worth), pour it into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. The total cost is about 65 cents and gives you a full pint of really better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for $2.50.

Tastes pleasant and never irritates. This Pinex and sugar syrup preparation gets right at the cause of a cough and gives almost immediate relief. It loosens the phlegm stops the nasty throat tickle and heals the sore, irritated membranes that line the throat, chest and bronchial tubes, so gently and easily that it is really astonishing. A day's use will usually overcome the ordinary cough and for bronchitis, croup, whooping cough and bronchial asthma, there is nothing better.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and has been used for generations to break up severe coughs.

To avoid disappointment, be sure to ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept anything else. Guarantee absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Heart & Home Problems by MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON

Dear Mrs. Thompson: How can I remove hair from my arms?

A. E. L.

Do not try to remove hair from your arms, because it will come in so much coarser and heavier if you do. Bleach it with peroxide so that it will not show as much. Peroxide is very drying and will have a tendency to reduce the growth.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: Will taffeta and georgette crepe be worn this spring? O. K.

They will be very popular.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a young girl nineteen years old and have pimples under my skin; also many blotches on my face. Would you please give me a good remedy for this. Thanking you very much.

PAULA.

I hesitate to advise you about your skin. I should advise you to consult a physician. There are many preparations for the skin but unless you get at the bottom of the trouble the relief from these cosmetics will only be temporary.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a very young girl, eighteen years old and I am troubled with wrinkles under my eyes that are becoming more noticeable every day. I would thank you very much if you would give me a remedy that will not harm my skin as it is very tender.

YOUTH.

If you massage your face carefully every morning before retiring I feel sure the lines will gradually disappear. However you should be careful to rub away from the nose beneath the eyes instead of toward the nose.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I will be seventeen years old August 27, 1918. Do you think I am too young to become a Christian or not? Are you a Christian? I am not a Christian. Brown Eyes.

You are certainly not too young to become a Christian. Whenever you are old enough to tell the difference between right and wrong I think you may become affiliated with the church organization of your choice. I am a member of a church, if that is what you mean by asking me if I am a Christian. If one tries his best to do his best every day it seems to me he is a Christian.

Revelations of a Wife

BY ADELE GARRISON

A PROMISE AND A HINT

"You know I could never forget you, Mrs. Stewart," I said, feeling a very hygienic as I spoke. I dreaded to tell her that it was not my wish to see her but my desire to obtain a favor visit.

"Of course you're going to stay to dinner, and why didn't you bring your husband along?" She shot the questions at me in the rapid fire fashion I remembered. I mentally braced myself to tell her the truth.

"Dear Mrs. Stewart," I said, taking her hand. "You must forgive me, but I came today only on an errand, and I must go away again almost at once. I am coming to spend the day with you very soon, however."

"Well, I thought it was too good to be true if you had come all this way just to visit a poor old woman," she said shrewdly. "But that's all an old woman has any right to expect from a bride. They're thoughtless creatures, brides. I was one once myself, and I know." She laughed heartily, then patted my shoulder.

"Out with it, whatever you want of me," she said. "You know I'll do anything I can for you."

I felt a curious reluctance to tell her what I wanted, but I knew the thing must be done. "You remember my mother's cousin, Jack Bickett?" I began.

"Do I remember him? God love him I should say I did remember him," she answered me; then with another shrewd look at me, "Why?"

"You know he went away to South America a year ago, just after mother died, and before I had ever met Mr. Graham?"

She nodded. It was never her way to waste words. "He's coming back today. I had a letter from him a few days ago, saying so."

"I forwarded it to your address myself."

"Yes, and I thank you for doing so," I hastened to assure her. "But you see, he doesn't know anything about

Young Man Gets Next to Himself

One of our young men sure has come to the front in short order and his friends are at a loss to understand his untiring energy and ability to work and get results, where only a few weeks before he seemed to be all run down and almost a nervous wreck.

Questioned by a curious friend as to the cause of the sudden change, he said: "I sure was in bad shape and no one knew it better than I did. It had my goat for fair. I was all in and my nerves shot to pieces with worry and sleepless nights. One day I overheard a customer telling what Phosphated Iron had done for him and I could not get a supply quick enough. That's the whole story. Just Phosphated Iron. My poor tired overworked nerves just seemed to be Phosphate hungry, the way they took hold of it, and say, what a relief. I felt like a new man. Could sleep at night, and get up in the morning feeling like a two-year-old. Believe me, I had some appetite, too, my weight increased rapidly, my face filled out and had the color of perfect health that only goes with pure blood, well fed with Iron."

"You can bet I am strong for Phosphated Iron. Everyone who tries it is a booster."

"Do you know even the doctors are prescribing it; trust them to get next to a good thing; they were not long in coming to Phosphated Iron."

To insure doctors and their patients getting the genuine Phosphated Iron we have put in capsules only, so do not allow dealers to substitute pills or tablets. Conkey Drug Co. and leading druggists everywhere.—Adv.

Mr. Graham, doesn't dream that I'm married, and I—

"You want me not to tell him if he calls you up here."

"You are positively uncanny, Mrs. Stewart," I cried. "How did you guess it?"

"How could I help guessing it?" she retorted. "But you needn't have worried. I wouldn't have told him anyway. That's a surprise I wouldn't want to be the one to hand to Mr. Jack Bickett. I wish you joy of your job of telling him."

"Why, Mrs. Stewart, whatever do you mean?"

"None are so blind as those who will not see," Mrs. Stewart returned cryptically.

Her words lingered in my ears long after I had left her with the understanding that if Jack should call her up she would simply say I had moved and give him my new telephone address. Why did she call me "blind"?

"Where have you been?"

Dicky's tone was peremptory. I had hoped to get back from my early trip to Mrs. Stewart's home before he awoke, but when I entered our own door he was sitting by the window.

"Out for a walk." I hated myself for the evasion, but I knew if I told Dicky the truth, that I had made a hurried trip to my old landlady's to prevent the possibility of her telling Jack Bickett I was married before saw him myself, another scene would be the inevitable result.

"Humph!" Dicky sneered disagreeably. "I suppose you are so upset over the prospective arrival of that girl—that girlhood admirer of yours that you had to take a walk to calm your nerves."

FARMERS' CLUB TO MEET

OXFORD, O., Feb. 19.—The Social Farmers' club will hold its February meeting tomorrow at "Greystone," the home of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Gillespie. These papers will be read: "Should Butler County Farmers Out and Feed All Corn Fodder?" by Clem Conn; "The Effects of Unbalanced Population," by R. D. Gillespie; "Will Interest Rates Advance After the War?" by Samuel E. Fry. The wives of the members will discuss the following topics: "Current Events," Mrs. William Timberman; "Some of the Educational Advantages of Travel," Mrs. R. D. Gillespie; "The Cooking of Meats," Mrs. Lawrence Reed.

ANDERSON, Ind., Feb. 19.—Appraisers of the estate of the late Joseph L. Phillips, slaughter house owner, found that he had $15,000 worth of hides stored away.

QUIT MEAT IF YOUR KIDNEYS ACT BADLY

Take tablespoonful of Salts if back hurts or Bladder bothers—Drink lots of water

We are a nation of meat eaters and our blood is filled with uric acid, says a well-known authority, who warns us to be constantly on guard against kidney trouble.

The kidneys do their utmost to free the blood of this irritating acid, but become weak from the overwork; they get sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and thus the waste is retained in the blood to poison the entire system.

When your kidneys ache and feel like lumps of lead, and you have stinging pains in the back or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or the bladder is irritable, obliging you to seek relief during the night; when you have severe headaches, nervous and dizzy spells, sleeplessness, acid stomach or rheumatism in bad weather, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys, to neutralize the acids in urine so it is no longer a source of irritation, thus ending urinary and bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, and nobody can make a mistake by taking a little occasionally to keep the kidneys clean and active.—Adv.
